CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

Fall Leadership Conference takes the focus from member to student leader! FLC focuses on the SkillsUSA mission to help its members to become world-class workers, leaders and responsible American citizens.

SESSIONS

- Leadership development and employability skill workshops for students
- Student to student and teacher to teacher networking
- Exchange information between the state office and advisors
- Involve local business/industry as presenters

AGENDA & LUNCH

During student sessions, students will attend 4 of the 8 sessions available (sessions, TBD). All sessions and room numbers will be posted at a later date. All sessions will be related to an essential element of the SkillsUSA Framework. Advisors will have a SkillsUSA update and informational sessions to attend. Please make arrangements to stay for the entire FLC experience. Closing Session and Keynote will conclude at 3:30PM.

Lunch is on your own. A map of nearby dining options will be available at registration.

PARKING

Parking is on your own. The Jefferson Street Garage has offered our group a $5 parking rate. The 4th Street entrance can accommodate oversized vehicles.

We also suggest utilizing the METRO Light Rail by dropping participants off at the PCC and sending your vehicle to park in a free Park-and-Ride lot. The closest lots are 38th Street/Washington Street or Central Avenue/Camelback Road. The fee to ride the Light Rail is $3.50 for an all day pass. The passenger stop for the PCC is 3rd Street/Washington (Westbound) or 3rd Street /Jefferson (Eastbound).

The entrance to the registration area is E Monroe Street between N 3rd Street and N 5th Street.

BUSINESS PROFESSIONAL ATTIRE OR OFFICIAL DRESS

Students and advisors are required to dress professionally. Suggested attire includes:

- Dress slacks with a button down shirt or polo. A dress skirt and blouse is acceptable for females.
- Official CTSO attire as outlined by SkillsUSA

The following are not permitted: t-shirts, shorts, mini-skirts, thin-strap tank tops, jeans, torn clothing, baggy pants, "skinny" pants, cargo pants, and flip flops.

REGION OFFICERS (elected prior to FLC)

This year, region officers were elected prior to Fall Leadership Conference. The region officers will attend an officer training that has been designed to specifically for region officers. For more information about region officers please visit our website:

SPECIAL PRIZE FOR CANNED FOOD

SkillsUSA Arizona will be launching a Canned Food Drive Competition at the Fall Leadership Conference. Your schools Program area can be active leaders for change by donating canned food to support a local bank as an entry to receive a special SkillsUSA prize.

The 2018 Fall Leadership Conference goal is set for 2,000 cans, this goal can be achieved if each participant brought 1 can! By participating, your schools Program enters in to receive a special prize of 1 resource of choice up to $100 value from the SkillsUSA Catalog. This is a contest you wont want to miss!

HOW IT WORKS

Donations will be collected by 1 Program area per school. Challenge each other to bring 1 canned item per participant. Canned items will be collected at the Fall Leadership Conference and an award will be given to the winning Program area.

DONATION DROP OFF

Bring your canned items to Registration and a SkillsUSA State Officer or Staff Member will be there to take your schools name and program.

WINNERS

The program that receives this special prize will be contacted directly by the SkillsUSA Arizona Office.
