Discussion
Jason Wojck reported that there were major changes coming in the Internship CoOp programs in the state He reported that the Department of Labor has conducted inspections and Arizona is the first and only to be fined, a Mesa Cabinet Shop was fined $11,000 per student. Jason reported that Arizona Department of Education (ADE) sent something out during the Arizona Career and Technical Education (AZCTE) Summer Conference. He also said he would be meeting in a couple weeks with local directors to discuss the matter. Oscar Olivias asked how this would affect our state competitions, Carrie Wolf suggested it was not a work site and would not have any effect. Jason stated it has to do with the businesses involved Ross Rector – questioned again if it is only an Arizona Business that has been fined. Jason reiterated that is has only happened here in Arizona. Oscar – questioned which contests were affected? Jason stated currently Auto, Culinary, and Construction. He said they are dealing with AG differently. Ross- questioned why AG was being treated differently? Jason informed us that AG already has a law that pertains to this matter. Jason also informed us that the Arizona Attorney General and Department of Labor is reviewing each programs equipment list. Oscar asked if there is anyone in AZ DOL that supports CTE, Jason said no. He did say that Mark Gilbert is trying to fight the issue.
